FAVOR RENOMINATING PRESIDENT HARDING

REPUBLICANS' POLL OF LEADERS MAKES IT ABOUT UNANIMOUS

SOME REPLIES RECEIVED STATE THERE WILL BE NO OPPOSITION SHOWN

COMMITTEEMEN OF THICKLY SETTLED STATES ARE STRONG SUPPORTERS

(Copyright 1923 by United Press)

Washington, March 23—Republican political leaders throughout the country are virtually unanimous for the renomination of President Harding, a poll of the republican national committee by the United Press showed today.

Several replies received in response for request for comment on Mr. Harding's candidacy as announced by Attorney General Daugherty brought the prediction that the president will be re-nominated with little opposition.

Likewise, the committeemen made prophecies as to his chances for reelection. Many stated that delegations from their states would be solidly pledged to Mr. Harding and the people of their states strongly favored his candidacy.

The president has the strong support of committeemen from the thickly populated states with their blocks of votes.

Among these are Secretary of War Weeks, of Massachusetts; Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania, and Charles E. Hilles of New York. Some of the committeemen could not be represented due to their absence from the country. No reply was received from Senator LaFollette's state of Wisconsin.

Among the views of these political leaders representing all sections of the country the following are typical:

Minnesota—I. A. Caswell: "I am firmly of the opinion that the Minnesota delegation will support Mr. Harding and that he will be re-elected. The agricultural situation is critical and there is a possibility that this will affect the result in the northwest. In the last election the farmer labor party utterly ignored Senator Kellogg's record in solving agricultural problems and harped on farmers troubles which are real enough, God knows. All were charged to the national administration. Perhaps these arguments will have been worn threadbare by next year and there is also hope that the agricultural conditions will improve. In either event the republican campaign in Minnesota will be an easy one."

URGES MINNESOTANS TO EAT MORE WHEAT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 23—In an official proclamation today Governor Preus urged citizens of the state to eat more wheat.

"Wheat is the most important product of the northwest and its price governs the price of other farm products," the proclamation read.

"Deploable farm conditions existing in the northwest are due largely to the present price of wheat which are the lowest in a half century."

"To increase prices we must create a bigger demand and this will be accompanied by a larger consumption. If a slice of bread was eaten at every meal it would increase the consumption throughout the United States each year by 171,000,000 bushel."

CANADA INTERESTED IN LAKES CANAL, SAYS REED

Minneapolis, March 23—Farmers and business men of the Canadian northwest are interested in the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway project, J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau federation, said when he returned from a 10 day speaking tour of Winnipeg, Swift Current, Moose Jaw, Regina, Saskatoon, Selkirk and Brandon. He spoke before the Manitoba legislature, the Canadian Credit Men's convention and Kiwanis club meetings.

Dunn, president of the Brainerd Civic & Commerce Association.

CLAIMS RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH

ALSO FREE ASSEMBLY, BASIS OF WILLIAM Z. FOSTER DEFENSE

(By United Press)

St. Joseph, Mich., March 23—The right of free speech and free assembly today formed the basis of defense in the trial of William Z. Foster, communist charged with violation of the Michigan syndicalist law. Efforts were made to show the Bridgman convention, which resulted in the indictment of Foster and other leaders of the communist party, did not promote acts of sabotage or violence in order to obtain political and industrial reform.

Attorneys for Foster also sought to bring out his contention that federal agents who attended the meeting as "under cover" men incited other delegates to take illegal action. Whether or not Foster will testify was undecided. The defense opened its case following a ruling by Judge Charles E. White that sufficient evidence had been presented by the prosecution to warrant sending the case to the jury.

He overruled protests by Frank P. Walsh, attorney for Foster, that the Michigan syndicalist law was unconstitutional and that the Bridgman convention was not in violation of that statute.

ASKS FEDERAL INVESTIGATION

Washington, March 23—Federal prosecution of twelve alleged communist leaders in this country and the investigation of the activities of nine other persons was asked of Attorney General Daugherty today by five anti-communist organizations. Formal charges were filed against the twelve leaders by the organization which declared that federal action was necessary to "cut the line of communications and supplies between red leaders in this country and the communists in Moscow."

Heading the list of those against whom charges were filed was William Z. Foster, on trial in Michigan in connection with alleged communist activities.

IMPORTANT TESTIMONY ORDERED RULED OUT

St. Joseph, Mich., March 23—Important testimony relied upon by the defense in the trial of William Z. Foster charged with violation of the Michigan syndicalist act, was ruled out today by Judge Charles White.

The court held that testimony of a general nature taken in many deposition hearings throughout the country by Foster's attorney could not be introduced.

The ruling was made when Frank P. Walsh, attorney for Foster attempted to present a deposition of Leo M. Horkins, a Philadelphia socialist, with the intention of impressing statements of Francis Morrow, investigator for the federal government and star prosecution witnesses. However, the decision will apply to other dispositions such as the sensational one made by Arthur Bailin in Chicago.

(By United Press)

New York, March 23—Many bears were caught short when Clarence Saunders of Memphis, Tennessee trapped them in the raid on Piggly Wiggly stock and have settled on terms of the latter at $150 a share. E. W. Bradford, counsel for Saunders declared.

Saunders will come to New York and handle the situation personally, according to one report. This report said he would at that time also carry out plans that will keep him from being a victim of his own corner by stabilizing stock.

Ask Settlement $100 a Share

New York, March 23—Clarence Saunders, Memphis, Tennessee, proposed full settlement on Piggly Wiggly stock at $100 a share, according to a Wall street announcement reported by the Dow Jones financial news agency.

Walter M. Kelson, counsel for Hansel placed witnesses on the stand in an effort to prove that King Benjamin used political influence on a number of occasions to prevent threatened state and federal investigations of the Benton Harbor institution.

Mrs. Hazel Wuerth, recalled during last night's session of court, told of her experiences in the private offices of King Benjamin while a member of the cult. She told of seeing a ten gallon bucket filled with gold coins and another filled with precious stones and of having been instructed to examine $100,000 following a report that counterfeit bills were in circulation.

Mrs. Esther Hansel, wife of the plaintiff and former secretary to King Benjamin testified that on two occasions she visited Woodbridge Ferris, former governor, regarding an investigation that threatened the institution.

Later she said she wrote letter for Benjamin to Ferris inquiring whether any further steps were being taken and pleading for intervention.

HERBERT SARGENT IN PENITENTIARY

Figured as Principal in the Ebinger Holdup in Northeast Brainerd Several Weeks Ago

GLAD TO BEGIN SENTENCE

First Clue as to Identity of Sargent Obtained by Sheriff Reid from Frank Kelly

Herbert Sargent, who figured as the principal in the Ebinger hold-up of several weeks ago, entered the state penitentiary at Stillwater on Tuesday to serve a possible sentence of ten years for robbery in the third degree. He was taken to the penitentiary by Sheriff Reid.

When interviewed by the sheriff Sargent seemed to be glad to begin his sentence. He stated several times to Mr. Reid that had he not been apprehended he probably would have committed more and worse crimes, because of the fact that he was desperate and a fugitive from justice.

He said that he wanted to pay his debt by serving his sentence and then make every effort to go straight after that.

The first clue obtained as to the identity of Sargent was found by Sheriff Reid from Frank Kelly. Rapid work was then done and Deputy Sheriff Theodore Nesheim with Mr. Kelly and Chief of Police Erick Graff and Captain Henry Abrahamson of the local force, made a search of the country where Sargent might be expected, and finally ran upon the information which resulted in his arrest at Little Falls.

Immediately after his arrest he was brought before the municipal court and then the district court. Quick work and co-operation on the part of the sheriff, police and county attorney resulted in Sargent being placed in the penitentiary in just ten days from the commission of the crime.

$200 a Seat

Offered in Cleveland, in an attempt to obtain admission to hear M. Coue, is only an indication of the tremendous interest everywhere in this remarkable man and his startling revelations.

Thousands upon thousands flocked to hear him in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, Boston, Detroit, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Toledo, Dayton, Columbus, Buffalo, Rochester, New Haven and Greenwich, Conn., on his lecture tours. Those who gained admittance were but a handful compared to the countless multitudes who were turned away disappointed when all standing room was taken.

These disappointed throngs and many millions more throughout the land who long to learn more of the possibilities of self-healing from the great teacher of auto-suggestion himself, are eagerly waiting for the opportunity to see M. Coue explain his remarkable truths on the screen.

Your only chance to learn from Dr. Coue, himself at the New Park theatre Saturday and Sunday and, best of all, mastery through conscious auto-suggestion, but it illustrates this welcome story with all the resources of the screen which were not available to M. Coue on the lecture platform.

HERBERT SARGENT IN PENITENTIARY

Figured as Principal in the Ebinger
Holdup in Northeast Brainerd
Several Weeks Ago

GLAD TO BEGIN SENTENCE

First Clue as to Identity of Sargent
Obtained by Sheriff Reid from Frank Kelly

Herbert Sargent, who figured as the principal in the Ebinger hold-up of several weeks ago, entered the state penitentiary at Stillwater on Tuesday to serve a possible sentence of ten years for robbery in the third degree. He was taken to the penitentiary by Sheriff Reid.

When interviewed by the sheriff Sargent seemed to be glad to begin his sentence. He stated several times to Mr. Reid that he had not been apprehended he probably would have committed more and worse crimes, because of the fact that he was desperate and a fugitive from justice.

He said that he wanted to pay his debt by serving his sentence and then make every effort to go straight after that.

The first clue obtained as to the identity of Sargent was found by Sheriff Theodore Nesheim with Mr. Kelly and Chief of Police Erick Graff and Captain Henry Abrahamson of the local force, made a search of the country where Sargent might be expected, and finally ran upon the information which resulted in his arrest at Little Falls.

Immediately after his arrest he was brought before the municipal court and then the district court. Quick work and co-operation on the part of the sheriff, police and county attorney resulted in Sargent being placed in the penitentiary in just ten days from the commission of the crime.

$200 a Seat

Offered in Cleveland, in an attempt to obtain admission to hear M. Coue, is only an indication of the tremendous interest everywhere in this remarkable man and his startling revelations.

Thousands upon thousands flocked to hear him in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, Boston, Detroit, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Toledo, Dayton, Columbus, Buffalo, Rochester, New Haven and Greenwich, Conn., on his lecture tours. Those who gained admittance were but a handful compared to the countless multitudes who were turned away disappointed when all standing room was taken.

These disappointed throngs and many millions more throughout the land who long to learn more of the possibilities of self-healing from the great teacher of auto-suggestion himself, are eagerly waiting for the opportunity to see M. Coue explain his remarkable truths on the screen. Your only chance to learn from Dr. Coue, himself at the New Park theatre Saturday and Sunday and, best of all, mastery through conscious auto-suggestion, but it illustrates this welcome story with all the resources of the screen which were not available to M. Coue on the lecture platform.

GOOD ROADS' FORCES GATHER

CHARLES M. BABCOCK, state highway commissioner, is seeking to win approval for the bond issue he recommends by the method of persuasion based on cold facts. In inviting delegations from all over the state to a meeting in which he will present his proposal and answer any questions asked, he insists that open-minded men attend the meeting, which he does not desire to have packed by those who are already convinced that the bonds ought to be voted by the legislature, but he seeks a representation that will enter the public meeting with open minds, willing to be convinced that the proposal is a good one, and ready to oppose the bond issue if they remain unconvinced of its desirability after the facts have been submitted to them.

The twenty million bond issue will not be voted unless the people of Minnesota demand the issue in no uncertain way. There are those who, desiring the legislature to follow the policy of retrenchment, will oppose bonding the state for this or any other purpose at this time. Others will not take time to secure the facts but will jump to the conclusion that taxes will be increased as a result of an issue of bonds. The Babcock amendment was not put through without a good deal of education and effort, and the bonds will not be voted unless those who think the issue highly desirable bestir themselves and use their influence with their representatives in the legislature.

Mr. Babcock presented the issue that is before the state in clear terms when he said that the people must decide that "using money for interest on good roads rather than larger amounts for repairs on poor roads" is the better policy. In a nutshell that is the situation. The people of Minnesota are to decide whether they will allow money, provided by the tax on automobiles and trucks, to be used for paying the interest on bonds that have provided good roads, or largely wasted on the upkeep of roads which, after the repairs have been made, will continually call for larger expenditures because no hard-surfaced roads have been constructed. When the cost of the upkeep of a car is so high that it will pay the interest on money used in buying a new one and in a few years equal the cost of the new car, the sensible man buys a new car. Just this is the situation in Minnesota. The state must spend money on something that will not stand up or on constructive work that will bear the heavy traffic. Those who use the roads will pay for their use and the tax-payer will not carry the burden. The average tax-payer will be ready to let those who pay the automobile tax build good, permanent roads which he may use at any time.

THE TARIFF COMMISSION FUNCTIONS

UNDER definite instructions from the president the tariff commission is prepared to go ahead with its consideration of changes in the tariff schedule. When the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill was before congress, President Harding was led to the point where he requested of congress the right to have the tariff commission reconsider the rates fixed in the bill. The president was advised that in certain cases the proposed rate might operate to the nation's disadvantage and to avoid this he asked for a flexible tariff. Demands that have already been made for revision of the rates fixed by the bill prove that the president was well-advised in requesting that the tariff commission be given the power to revise the rates.

It will not be known until this matter has been before the supreme court, whether the clause in the bill, which conferred this power on the president acting through the tariff commission, is in agreement with the constitution of the United States which vests the president with certain powers and the legislative body with others. The supreme court must decide whether congress has the privilege of passing over such rate-fixing duties to the commission acting under the authority of the chief executive officer of the nation. Something similar has been done in the case of the Interstate Commerce commission which has rate-fixing powers vested in it. This matter is for the supreme court to decide, and it will be well for the country if the court finds that there is nothing in the provision that gives flexibility to the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill that is unconstitutional. The appeals that have already been made for a revision of rates is an indication of what may be expected from time to time and suggests the advantage that will result from the president's demand that the revision of rates be left with the commission.

"HALF CENTURY" BRAND WHITE CEDAR SHINGLES

Laid with Galvanized or Copper Nails

"Half Century" Brand Shingles are all "air-cured". That fact in itself makes them a lot more durable and satisfactory than shingles that are rushed through excessively heated dry kilns just so that they can be marketed in a hurry.

Then there is a lot greater natural weather resistance in some woods than in others. White Cedar weathers wonderfully.

Another thing: shingles that are cut too thin will split under nails. "Half Century" Brand Shingles are of uniform thickness—always.

And White Cedar Shingles give just the effect you want with any shade of stain or paint.

"HALF CENTURY" BRAND WHITE CEDAR SHINGLES
Laid with Galvanized or Copper Nails

"Half Century" Brand Shingles are all "air-cured". That fact in itself makes them a lot more durable and satisfactory than shingles that are rushed through excessively heated dry kilns just so that they can be marketed in a hurry.

Then there is a lot greater natural weather resistance in some woods than in others. White Cedar weathers wonderfully.

Another thing: shingles that are cut too thin will split under nails. "Half Century" Brand Shingles are of uniform thickness—always.

And White Cedar Shingles give just the effect you want with any shade of stain or paint.

It pays to look for the "Half Century" Brand Trade-Mark, shown above, on every bundle of shingles.

BRAINERD ROTARY AT ST. PAUL MEETING

Brainerd Club Carried Away Second Prize for Number of Ladies Attending

CLUB SIGNALLY RECOGNIZED

Brainerd Advertised as Gateway to the 10,000 Lakes, Each Diner at Banquet Receiving Card

The Brainerd Rotary Club gave a good account of itself at the district convention, held in the auditorium in St. Paul the first three days of this week.

Twenty Rotarians from the local club, accompanied by seventeen "Rotary-Anns" as some of their number characterize the ladies, attended the convention, and carried away the second prize for ladies' attendance. The first prize going to Williston, N. D.

Brainerd's club was signally recognized when the military band, the official musicians at the convention, played the accompaniments to the songs especially written for the local aggregation, which were sung during the banquet on Tuesday evening.

Plenty of recognition cards were taken along by the Brainerd folks, advertising the central city of the state and the gateway to the ten thousand lakes, and these went the rounds of the whole banquet hall, enough being supplied so that each diner could have one.

A unique feature of the banquet was a large American flag, held suspended by its four corners above the tables. As the Rotarians sang the Star Spangled Banner, two corners of the flag were released, which emptied hundreds of toy balloons onto the crowd below.

Each Rotarian returned from this convention more than ever impressed with the spirit of the organization, and all feel well repaid for the efforts put forth to make the meeting a success.

McGRAW WANTS TO SET NEW RECORD

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, March 22—With a nice country home, a comfortable fortune and everything that a man should want when he reaches the age for retirement, John McGraw continues the arduous duties of handling a champion ball club.

The "little Napoleon" of the diamond must be tired of sleeping cars, fed up on hotel food and hardened to the thrills and romances of the game. Twenty-five years of stiff going in an exacting game where it takes youth to hold out, ought to make a veteran of a man in heart and bone.

McGraw must have some reason for sticking at a grind that must be tiresome most of the time. He must have some ambition beyond the mere making of dollars.

He must be inspired by some great desire and from the change in his policies, it may be that "Mac" wants to have the name of McGraw perpetuated for all times and have himself recorded as the greatest of all baseball managers McGraw used to buy, but he is building now. He used to be one with the attitude that today is the day and let tomorrow take care of itself. Now he is working both ends.

With just a few exceptions, the great Giant ball club which McGraw will start as a favorite in the 1923 pennant race came "ready-to-throw" off the market. It stands a great ball club this year and it is not at the cracking point, although the veterans outnumber the youngsters in the regular lineup.

McGraw apparently is working on the theory that his infield, the great combination that made the Yanks look sick in the last world's series, hasn't long to go and he is grooming another combination to step up when Groh, Bancroft and Kelly have to step down.

No other ball club has in the makings an infield to compare with McPhee, Princeton third baseman; Jackson, Little Rock shortstop; Fred Maguire, Holy Cross second baseman, and Jimmy O'Connell, St. Mary's first baseman, who is also a $75,000 outfielder.

With three or four major league clubs, that infield would be regular workers but McGraw doesn't need them right now and all the time, with the strict personal direction that McGraw carries out, they will be learning as they sit on the bench.

Moonshine Absorbed

Manager McGraw of the New York Giants has fined Jack Scott, star pitcher and one of the heroes in the last world series $100; relegated catcher Earl Smith to the second team, and reprimanded other players for drinking corn liquor, according to a dispatch to a New York newspaper from its correspondent at the Giants' training camp at San Antonio, Texas.

"These fellows are paid well to keep in shape and train faithfully," McGraw is quoted as saying. "I have won pennants before on discipline alone and lack of material but I would not attempt to win another without discipline in my club."

"I will break up these wild orgies among my players or know the reason why."

Brennan After Match

New York, March 22—Bill Brennan, recovering steadily from the sledge-hammer blows which ended in the 12th round with Luis Angel Firpo on March 12, returned to his home Monday night from the hospital and felt well enough to talk of a return match with Firpo.

Dr. Spitzer, who attended Brennan since his injury, said that the point behind the left ear where Firpo's terrific blow fell would always be a danger spot, but the full effect on Brennan's ring career could not be determined for another week.

The new world champion light heavyweight, Mike McTigue, is keeping to himself these days. Mike refuses to answer requests for assignments to meet any of the anxious Yankee boxers on this side.

They are having a deuce of a time getting a sparring mate for Firpo. Tex Rickard wants Firpo to blaze away at someone on the same card with Willard and Johnson at the Yankee ball park May 12. At present the candidates include Billy Miske, Bob Roper, Jack Renault and a few more men of their type.

Rail Hour Work Ordered

Chicago, March 22—The New York Central railroad was ordered to operate its shops on an hourly basis instead of a piece work basis, as they have been operated, in a decision handed down by the United States railroad labor board.

The case was brought before the board by the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor claiming to represent about 9,000 shopcraft employees of the New York Central.

AMUSEMENTS

The "Queen of Sheba" in New Rex Beach Story at Lyceum
"In Rex Beach's photoplay story, 'Fair Lady,' I have endeavored to picture the dominant influences that sway the actions of a woman whose most cherished dream, 'Love' has been taken away from her," says Miss Betty Blythe, leading woman in the big screen drama, a United Artists release, to be shown at the Lyceum tonight and Saturday. "and the theme of the play, as Mr. Beach conceived it, appealed so strongly to me that in all of my scenes I seemed to actually live the part I was playing."

Lloyd Makes the World Laugh
Harold Lloyd makes the world laugh.

There is no geographical limit to his fame as a funmaker. His fun is broadened by smiling miles of silversheets. Whenever his joyful bespectacled countenance appears on the screen, it is a signal for hilarity.

In the White House, President Harding was tired and careworn over the problems of the nation. A Lloyd comedy was thrown on the White House screen and Harding laughed and forgot coal strikes.

The famous comedian, Al Jolson, decided to make screen comedies. He saw Lloyd and called it off. His one desire now is to be known as the "Harold Lloyd of the stage."

Harold Lloyd in "Dr. Jack" will be shown at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday.

Old Resident Near Death

"I had not eaten food for 10 days and was slowly starving to death. Given up by five doctors, I tried a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy which gave relief at once. I am 75 years old and would have died but for your wonderful medicine. The jaundice is all gone and I am gaining appetite and strength every day." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and all leading druggists.

TOM GIBBONS MAY REPLACE WILLARD

Edward G. Walker makes a prognosis that Tommy Gibbons may get his shot at Dempsey and his world's heavyweight championship a lot sooner than most boxing fans believe. Reports from New York are that the press and public are not looking on Jess Willard any too kindly and Tex Richards may make a last minute switch.

It is understood that if Tex makes the change that Tommy Gibbons will be sent against Floyd Johnson on May 12 instead of the former world's title holder.

Kellogg's Bran is ALL BRAN—that's why it relieves constipation!

Half-way measures mean nothing to the man, woman or child whose very existence is threatened by the habitual clogging of the elimination channels. Foods with only part bran can never clean and sweep the intestines in the nature-way as does Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled.

And, Kellogg's Bran is as delicious in flavor as it is positive in its action. If it is eaten regularly—two table-spoonfuls daily; in chronic cases, with each meal—it will permanently relieve the most aggravated case.

Your health will be greatly improved within a brief period if you will eat this delicious Kellogg cereal. Know what Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, will do for you and for your loved ones. There is no time to be lost in getting the relief that Kellogg's Bran assures.

Kellogg's Bran is delightful as a cereal, sprinkled over any hot or cold cereal, or served in countless appetizing ways in baking and cooking. It makes the best sort of pancakes, muffins, raising bread, macaroons, etc., you ever ate. And, each mouthful contributes to health! Kellogg recipes are printed on each package. Kellogg's Bran works for you all the time! Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran for constipation.

A pimply complexion or an offensive breath can both be overcome by the regular use of Kellogg's Bran, which is sold by grocers everywhere.

23 SERIES BIG-SIX TOURING CAR $1750

Many people make the mistake of buying a car without enough seating capacity.

Then when they want to take their friends along, the children have to sit on someone's lap, the foot space is all jammed up with luggage, and everybody is crowded and uncomfortable.

The Studebaker Big-Six Touring Car has two comfortable auxiliary seats that fold out of the way. It is a big, roomy five-passenger car except when you need it for seven, and then it's a comfortable, convenient seven-passenger car—something which a five-passenger car can never be. And there is still room for the luggage.

Come in and look at the Big-Six Touring Car. No matter how much you pay we don't believe you can find a more satisfactory car.

Its reliability has been proved in the service of thousands of owners. Correct design, highest quality of materials and precise workmanship are evident throughout every detail of its construction. Equipment is complete—even to an extra disc wheel with cord tire, tube and tire cover and bumpers, front and rear.

The name Studebaker is assurance of satisfaction.
